Prešov

The old historical town Prešov is situated in the East of Czechoslovakia.
The oldest notice was written by king Bela IV in the year 1247. With its historical centre and many architectural memorials Prešov is today one of the important Slovakian memorable reservations.

Prešov has 45 000 inhabitants and is an important cultural, educational and administrative centre of Eastern Slovakia. There are several machine, textile and food factories in Prešov, well known even abroad.

Prešov is going to celebrate the 50th aniversary of the Slovak Republik of Councils, which was proclamated here on 16th June 1919.
